48 counterclaims for revocations have been filed with the Court's local and regional divisions. This figure however gives an inflated impression unless it is noted that that each defendant in an infringement case needs to file an individual claim for revocation. The 48 counterclaims for revocation come from 18 individual infringement actions.

In addition, the Court of First Instance has received applications for provisional measures, preserving evidence and orders for inspection.

The Court of Appeal has started to receive and deal with procedural appeals and appeals concerning provisional measures. In particular, the Court of Appeal has received 1 appeal under RoP220.1 and 14 appeals under RoP220.2.

It can be noted that German is still the predominating language of proceedings (49 percent) with an increasing use of English now at 40 percent of language of total proceedings.
